Bangalore,

26th November 1904.

My dear Mr. Staley,

8 The file relating to the proposals of the Chief Court to fill up Mr. Mylari Rao's place is now before me. Mr. D.K. Rama Rao is a Judicial Probationer and his appointment to act as additional Munsiff seems to be all right. I am not sure however whether it is necessary to bring in Alasingrachar from Shimoga for a temporary vacancy, when we have other probationers ready to hand. In Bangalore there is Mr. G. Srinivasaiya, B.A., B.L., who appeared once for the M.L Examination and very nearly passed. He is, I believe, appearing again this year. He is a smart young man. Prior to his appointment as a Probationer, he was Sheristedar of the Sub-Judge's Court at Chittaldroog. I shall feel obliged if you can kindly favor me with your views as to whether you will have him temporarily. The arrangement will be economical and ensure a saving to Government.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- P.N. Krishna Murti.

9. The reason why I suggested Mr. Bhaskarappa for the temporary vacancy rather than Mr. G. Trivikrama were that I was informed that the former was senior to the latter & that the latter is son in law of the District Judge. The vacancy is now only temporary & the arrangement you propose more economical. I do not suppose the relationship

Submitted to His Highness.

10. My do letter to Mr. Staley and his reply with explanation of the circumstances of this case - Messrs. Mylandai was appointed back as a full Court and his place was temporarily taken up by Mr. D. K. Ramaswami Probationer and as such - A pending Messrs. is wanted for the additional Court thus vacated by Mr. D. K. Ramaswami and the Chief Judge recommended one Bhaskarachari a junior official - It seemed that if another Probationer who was available was appointed the arrangement would be economical and suitable and Mr. Staley has accepted this view - Under the circumstances I hereby recommend that the temporary & ad hoc appointment of Mr. G. S. Venkatesh B.A. B.L. Probationer may be graciously sanctioned.
